

Aesthetic Medical International Holdings Group Limited Launches Charity Campaign to Help Combat COVID-19

February 18, 2020

Shenzhen, Feb. 18, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Aesthetic Medical International Holdings Group Limited (the "Company" or Nasdaq: AIH), a leading provider of aesthetic medical services in China, today announced that the Company has launched a charity campaign to help combat coronavirus disease (COVID-19).^[1]

The Company, through its 23 treatment centers across 17 cities in China, has intensified its efforts to help people in need. The Company organized charity fund raising activities among its employees and their family members, donated protective masks, thermometers and other medical supplies to the community, and allocated medical supplies for patients and healthcare personnel battling at the frontline.

Dr. Zhou Pengwu, Chairman and CEO of Aesthetic Medical International Holdings Group Limited, commented, "We have adhered to the corporate culture of 'thankful and grateful' for more than 20 years. In face of the outbreak of the 2019 novel coronavirus, it is our social responsibility to do our utmost to help and control the spread of the virus in China. We encourage more responsible enterprises to join us, continue to pay close attention to monitor the epidemic situation, provide more medical supplies, and strive to overcome the difficulties together."

^[1] Coronavirus disease (COVID-19) is a virus (more specifically, a coronavirus) identified as the cause of an outbreak of respiratory illness first detected in Wuhan, China. The latest situation summary updates are available on The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's web page.
